

THIS IS FOR YOU!

The great spiritual paths of the world cross a varied landscape of culture and traditions, but all have done alone time in the wilderness to be strengthened, healed and to obtain vision of their purpose in life. Because our Western Culture has taught us more about “doingness” than “beingness” we have lost touch with the natural rhythms within all that is around us.

We need time alone, away from responsibilities, and identifications of everyday life to help us renew relationships with self, Others, Earth, Spirit, and “All Our Relations”. With these connections that enrich our life with heart and meaning, we can find answers that lead us to our unique and sacred pathways which then allows us to bring our vision back in our community to make our world a better place for all our relations.

THE GOAL IS...

..to allow you to participate in the sacred ceremony of a Vision Quest; for you to feel the serenity, beauty, and safety of being with our Mother Earth in a peaceful way. To teach you how to listen to the Spirit That Moves In All Things and to know as well as trust this voice, feeling, or thought is your God speaking to you on an intimate level. The goal is to support you in obtaining a deeper connection with your Creator/God in obtaining the answers, direction, and healing which will allow you to fulfill your life’s purpose.

What is a Vision Quest?

A Vision Quest is a time in which we are in transition and seeking clarity, a passage – thus the term Rite of Passage. It is a time of endings and new beginnings. Often-times, there is knowingness that you are one. There is a real sense for the need to have alone time with one's God to obtain the knowingness that you are one. There is a yearning inside for the answers from the divine.

A Vision Quest is a divine appointment for which God speaks to our souls asking for alone time with all that is divine and the Quester keeps that appointment on both a conscience and physical level. These messages become louder and louder until we hear the call and do our personal vision Quest. Have you heard the call? Do you seek clarity and a yearning to know you and God are one? Are you able to hear your heart's wisdom? Are you ready to have your conversation with God? Are you living your passion? Are you living your legacy and making the contribution you were put here to make? What is the legacy you want to be remembered by?

Who goes on a Vision Quest?

Most people go on a Vision Quest to find purpose/meaning in their lives. Connecting with their God on an intimate personal level is the goal of the Quester. The primary purpose is to find worth, meaning, joy, and fulfillment from the source God/Great Spirit.

What if I've never been camping, will this hinder my experience?

No! Most people that do go on a Vision Quest have never been in the wilderness or camped. With our three days in base-camp, we go over in detail the way to be with our Mother Earth. There is a complete equipment list given to each Quester upon registering.

I've never been in the wilderness and fear the animals, elements, and being alone. Will I succeed?

While building community in base-camp, we are able to embrace these fears with love and understanding. Questers come home with a feeling of being a part of something much bigger and feeling connected to all our Relations. Returning with the love compassion, and dignity for all that Creator has created!

" I was 67 years old when I did my vision quest four years ago. I now have found purpose, passion, and wholeness in my life for the first time. I brought my vision back to my community by establishing a program of grandmothers mentoring inner-city girls – called "Skin Sisters." We take girls to cultural events such as plays, art museums, shows, musicals, and concerts introducing them to true art. What a joy and honor to give back to my community. We have four chapters in the United States and are growing." --
